Ne 59 1763, 1764, and 1765, The Court said"

The purposes of Those Statuss as Thus construed were manifestly.

1. To prevent any presson lastoning can office with a salary of $2500 fooin receiving any companier non the discharging the duries of any other office, unless expressly authorized bylaw.

2. To prevent the payment to any officer of compensation to performing the duries coluct belonged to any other officer or for day Extra service attactorch which such officer might be required to perform in the discharge of the duries of his office unless expressly authorized by law,

by law,

3. To prevent the allowance of additional pay,

Extra allowance, or comparation in any form whatsver to any officer in any branch of the public service whose salary is fixed by law, to any other service or duty whatsver, unless the same is onthorized by law and the appropriation thurstor expressly states theet it is to such additional pay,

Extra allowance, or comparation.

IT would be difficult to conceive of State were explicit to the proposes vidicated but as they did not pretent the hooding by the same preson of two distinct offices, places, or 2m playments, each with its own comprensation and duties? The Conquers, soon after the decision in the case lest cited (we.v. Samdue), parsed the out of duly 31, 1844 (supra), which, so far as
